

THE OTTAWA

BY WM. & M. OSMAN.

MONDAY, JULY 2, 1849.

Irish Relief Fund.

We are indebted to W. H. W. CUSHMAN, Esq., treasurer of the Hibernian Association of this place, for a copy of the "Address to the Public of the Rel Association of the Society of Friends in Ireland." It will be read with interest by a number in this place whose contributions towards the relief of Ireland were placed into the hands of this Association.

The Address of the Relief Association of the Society of Friends in Ireland.

In reviewing our proceedings for the two years and half, which have elapsed since the formation of this association, and in contemplating the present unhappy condition of our country, the conviction is painfully forced on us, that the public bounty distributed through us, as well as the rest afforded from other sources, whatever may have been their value in affording a temporary alleviation of wide-spread misery, have produced scarcely any permanently useful result.

Neither of these cases can properly be said to have originated in town. Danforth had been to Peru, on Friday and visited several cases while there—and helped to subdue them. But we need not flatter ourselves with the hope that Ottawa will escape. We too will have to take our share. Pro-fronting the elegant and clever theatrical and dramatist, Brougham, who has swapped some well-known French Fourrerie for Mr. Greeley. If Horace has seen it, ten to one, "like the little girl in the nursery book," after the pedlar had cut her "petticoats all round about," he felt like bolting home to see if his little dog knew him; for Brougham's impersonation of his peculiarities of dress, manner, conversation, walk, &c., are so striking as almost to deceive one into the momentary idea that the illustrious philosopher himself, rather than a waggish counterpart of an Irishman was, indeed, on the stage."

BUFFALO, June 20th 2 P. M.
Board of Health report 6 cases of cholera and 4 deaths.

"Charles," said a father to his son, while they were working in a saw-mill, "what possesses you to associate with such girls as you do? When I was of your age I could go with the first!" "Hut," said Charles, the first cut is always a slab—did you know that?" "Helping turn this log, Charles—quick!"

A country clergyman being opposed to the use of the violin in the church service, was, however, overruled by his congregation, who determined to have one. One of the most popular violinists to be within the reach of all who may wish to test its singular efficacy. Its reputation as a remedy for cuts, burns, bruises, galls, kicks, strains, old sores, Sweeney, ringbone, fistula, lameness, founders, &c.
